INDICTMENT

THE GRAND JURY CHARGES THAT:

Interference with a Flight Crew Attendant

On or about June 6, 2013, in the special aircraft jurisdiction of the United States, and elsewhere,

CARMEN M. LECHIN

defendant herein, did knowingly and unlawfully intimidate a flight attendant, namely, Samuel Oliver, serving on board an aircraft destined for Bogota, Colombia, by creating a disturbance in flight through her abusive language, her assaultive behavior and by her refusal to comply with the directions, instructions and warnings given to her by said flight attendant, thereby interfering with the performance of his duties and lessening his ability to perform his duties.

In violation of Title 49, United States Code, Section 46504.
